Sloop And A Life Lost.

Captain Strout, of the schooner William F. Campbell, from Tarpun bay, Bahama Islands, with pineapples, reports the total loss on the island of Little San Salvador of the British sloop Lizzie Culmer on June 22. The Culmer was bound from Nassau, her hailing port, with merchandise and passengers for Rum Cay when she went ashore in a blow. A woman passenger was drowned and the vessel was a total loss.
